

Arkansas

This summer four crosswalk systems were installed in the parking lot at a major corporate headquarters in Bentonville, Arkansas.

The entire project is solar powered with all the crosswalk systems wired into a single array.

View photos of the crosswalk system with amber LED in-pavement markers, control box, and photoelectric sensors mounted in powder-coated steel bollards.